

A1 cont.

Sub
B1
Cont.

- c) observing every two to three hours reduction in severity of septic shock symptoms, the symptoms selected from shivering, lethargy, fever, watery eyes and diarrhea and monitoring the survival of the animal 8 hours after administering the LPS injection, and
- d) furthering probing the reduction in neutrophil infiltration from blood vessels to the underlying tissue by staining and microscopic examination for checking the extent of inflammation.